What I Noticed:
- Mockup A
  - wasn't showing up for some reason
- Mockup B
  - looks super cool! I like the direction we're moving in!
  - I am a little confused by the lines segmenting the title. What is this doing to engage the space?
    - I also don't know where the navigation is
  - I love the different shapes the images are taking! Reminds me of photo frames
  - In the second set, I'm confused by the paragraph structure. It blends all the deaths together.
  - The body text in the first image is a little large--feels aggressive
- Drawings
  - The third set (circular characters) look amazing! I can't wait to see those in relation to the text!
  - Also, I know we talked about muted colors, but don't be afraid to use pops of color wherever you see fit! Thanks!
